

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

Reason, Right, and Revolution: Practical Philosophy between Kant and Hegel
An AHRC Research Network

Workshop 1: Morality after Kant

Date: 8th-9th December, 2017

Venue: The Treehouse, Berrick Saul Building, University of York.

---

Friday 8th December

10am - 11:25am

Alix Cohen

"Kant on the affective dimension of moral agency"

11:35am - 1pm

Katerina Deligiorgi

"Freedom and Norms: A Kantian
attempt to respond to a problem from 1788 and to one from 1882."

---

1pm - 2pm: Lunch

2pm - 3:25pm

Paul Guyer

"The Right, the Good, and the Highest Good: Pistorius and Kant"

3:35 pm - 5pm

Reed Winegar

"Elise Reimarus on Freedom"

---

7:00 pm: Workshop Dinner

Saturday 9th December

10am - 11:25am

Wayne Martin

"Fichte's Creuzer Review and the Transformation of the Free Will Problem"

11.35am - 1pm

Owen Ware

"Is Fichte's Ethics an Empty
Formalism?"

---

1pm - 2pm: Lunch

2 pm - 3:25pm

Tim Brownlee

"Morality and Recognition in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit"

3.35pm - 5pm

Joe Saunders

"Freedom, Nature, and Practical Philosophy: Schelling's Challenge to Kant in the Introduction to the Ideas"